The goals of Piscataqua Obedience Club (POC):

1. To offer basic obedience instruction for canine companions, purebred and All-Americans.
2. To offer more advanced training for those interested in obedience titles.
3. To hold special events such as obedience fun matches, tracking workshops, certification workshops, plus nursing home and school visitations.
4. To help local communities by providing animal education via nursing homes, schools, and service organizations.
5. The Club and its members will always strive to display good sportsmanship and fairness in all its endeavors which includes meetings, classes, and public events.
